Library Foundation Announces New Board Member

The Harford County Public Library Foundation is pleased to announce the addition of Amy Carlson to the Foundation's Board of Directors. She joins a dynamic group of people dedicated to supporting the Library and enhancing its programs.

Amy Carlson is a Havre de Grace resident and military spouse. She and her family have made Harford County their home for many years. In her current role as Assistant Vice President of Branch Operations at APG Federal Credit Union, Amy leads branch managers and forms community partnerships. "Amy's background in banking will be an asset to the Foundation Board. Her true passion is with building community partnerships," said Vanessa Milio, HCPL Foundation Director.

Amy has served in leadership roles with the Military & Civilian Spouses Club, the Route 40 Business Association and the Harford County Commission for Women. She has been an Athena Award nominee and has completed the Harford Leadership Academy.

The Harford County Public Library Foundation is a 501© 3 charitable organization dedicated to enhancing Harford County Public Library services. The Foundation raises funds to augment the financial resources of the Library and works to promote awareness of library services. The Foundation facilitates the library's development as a creative environment within the county that encourages the acquisition of knowledge and the love of reading.
