Quilt Raffle Winner

Steve Glackin was the winner of the North Harford Friends annual quilt raffle. Mr. Glackin won a beautiful Lancaster County quilt. In its 15th year, this year's raffle raised over $1,150.00.

The North Harford Friends was organized in 1989 with a mission to promote interest in the Library, support and contribute to the Library facilities at Whiteford and Norrisville, encourage the use of the Library facilities and services, serve as volunteers, lend legislative support and support the freedom to read. To find out more about becoming a member of any of the Friends groups of Harford County Public Library please visit your local branch.

Harford County Public Library operates eleven branches located throughout Harford County, Maryland. The library serves over 180,000 registered borrowers of all ages and has an annual circulation of over 4,000,000. The mission of Harford County Public Library is to provide access, service and information to the citizens of Harford County anytime, anywhere and to create an environment that encourages the acquisition of knowledge and the love of reading.
