Julienne Irwin "America's Got Talent" Finalist to Hold Benefit Concert for Library

Julienne Irwin, Bel Air's own celebrity, country music singer and finalist of the show America's Got Talent, will be holding a benefit concert to support Harford County Public Library.

"I am so excited to be able to support the library," stated Julienne. I learned to read when I was 3 years old and the library is a great way to get kids to read at any age!"

The concert will be held at Rockfield Manor on August 8th from 6 – 8 pm. Gates open at 5 pm for this family friendly event. "This is a wonderful opportunity for families to come out and enjoy an evening together," indicated Terence O. Hanley, President, Harford County Public Library Foundation Board. "We will be featuring a talented singer, local vendors and a great location, all to benefit Harford County Public Library."

Tickets for the event are $20 each with children under 10 free. VIP tickets are available at $50 and include an exclusive meet and greet with Julienne in the Manor house, autograph session and photo opportunity. The VIP reception begins at 5pm and light refreshments will be served.

Many local sponsors are supporting the event. They include A Bright Idea, Advantage Title Co., Bel Air Friends of HCPL, Harford County Office of Economic Development, Harford Mutual Insurance, Harford Neighbors.Net, Ramsey Ford, Sheriff Jesse Bane, Skylight Creative Ideas, Terence O. Hanley and family, the Aegis, The Handyman, and WXCY radio. "We are grateful to the many businesses and community leaders who have supported this event through sponsorships. Their generous commitment to the Library will help make this event a success," stated Hanley.

Bob Bloom from WXCY will be the evening's MC. Local vendors will be on-site for food, beer and wine purchases. The event will take place rain or shine.
